

Title: HVAC Commercial Service Technician

Job Summary: This role is for work as a Commercial Service Technician. This role will be based in the Columbus area, with travel to the surrounding areas. This role includes knowing how to troubleshoot and repair heating, cooling, and refrigeration, as well as some cooking equipment.

Qualifications:

3 years minimum experience

Clean driving record, background check and drug test required

Good customer service skills

Positive attitude

Team player

Willingness to learn

Hand tools required

Starting pay rate:

Dependent upon experience

Benefits:

Medical, Dental and Vision Insurance

Life Insurance

Short-Term and Long-Term Disability

401k

ESOP

Paid Time Off (after 1 year)

Company van and gas card (once training is complete)

Paid holidays

Tool account provided after one year

Proudly Serving Central Ohio for over 45 years

Wenger Temperature Control is Columbus and Cincinnati Ohio's heating, cooling, and refrigeration specialists. We were founded by Ed Wenger in 1977 on the principle that if you treat customers with integrity, give them a fair price, and offer qualified technicians, then you have customers for life. Currently a Zink Corporation company run by George Wenger, we follow the same principles today.